Artistically Speaking

Note from Pine Shores President...

Hello, My Friends,

Now that we have this beautiful warm(ish) weather, our spirits are lifting as we look forward to summertime. Unfortunately, not everyone has such heartwarming thoughts.

You have received a barrage of blasts from Pine Shores warning of attempts that appear to be requests from either me personally, or Pine Shores.

Many of our members, especially Board Members, continue to receive emails that can only be described as "phishing" scams in which the bad guys try to trick us into giving them money, personal information, or both.

These emails often appear to come from me! I assure you no one from Pine Shores will ever, ever, ask you for money or your personal information. I have changed my password, (and you might wish to change yours) and that appears to be helping, at least for now, but they'll probably figure out a new approach.

Be extremely careful, and very suspicious. If you receive any odd-sounding communications, hit delete!

Take care of yourselves,

Lonny
