

Volunteers Needed

Pine Shores thrives because of the generosity, creativity, and care of our volunteers. Your time and talents help keep our programs, friendships, and welcoming art community strong. Every role is supported by a committee, so you'll have guidance from fellow members and the Board along the way.

Volunteering is a wonderful way to share what you love, learn something new, connect with other artists, and be part of what makes Pine Shores special. Open positions are available now, and training can begin right away.

If you'd like to help with any position below or to join our volunteer on-call list, we would be happy to hear from you. Please email us at:
