

Artistically Speaking

Note from Pine Shores President...

Hello, my friends,

I want to take this opportunity to reflect upon the fellowship and camaraderie I witnessed at the Art Harvest Reception November 24th. It was a beautiful show; your artwork was some of our best, and Suzi, Irene and their crew displayed it to perfection. Refreshments supplied by Linda Blum, along with goodies many of you brought in, were delicious, as always. But it was more than those elements which we have come to expect.

It was fun, not merely pleasant but actually fun! People were walking around chatting with friends we hadn't seen in a while, joking, laughing . . . really enjoying one another. I've been told that Pine Shores' get-togethers were like that several years ago, but not in our more recent past.

I've always thought of Pine Shores as a social club as much as an art organization, which is good for all of us in this stage of our lives, but this was a demonstrably happy afternoon.

Whatever was in the air that day, I hope it continues.

Sincerely,

Lonny Hall, President
