Note from Pine Shores President...

It's Getting Close Now

I think I have good news!

I drove by the Stafford building today(I think I'm in danger of facing charges for stalking), and I saw that significant progress has been made since we last spoke.

The first floor has been resided and painted with yellow paint, which may or may not be the 2nd coat, but it looks good. Upstairs has been wrapped. All windows have been installed and trimmed. Then comes the painting.

The contractor should be finished in about two weeks. Then Stafford will paint our 2nd floor interior and see what they can do with our floor.

There will be cleaning up to do when all work is complete, so we're thinking maybe for the Board Meeting on November 5th, and for the General Meeting and election of 2026 officers on Novembers 10th, probably.

These dates are not written in stone. Until we know for sure, please continue to assume that all events Pine Shores will be held at Tuckerton.

As soon as all is solidified, we will send out a blast. Once again, keep going to Tuckerton until you hear from me.

Thanks for your patience!
